Stand and make sign of cross

God, come to my assistance.

— Lord, make haste to help me.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Spirit:
as it was in the beginning, is now,
and will be for ever. Amen. Alleluia.

HYMN

O Word proceeding from on high, light coming from the Father's light,
by birth you came to save the world
when time's appointed course had run.

Now come and fill our hearts with light, consume them in your love's bright heat,
and when the herald's cry is heard,
may all deceit be put to flight.

So when at length you come as Judge to probe our hearts in thought and deed, to weigh the guilt for hidden sin
and crown the just for deeds well done,

Let not the nature of our sins detain us in the evil throng, but let us with the blessed share
the life of heaven evermore.

To you, O Christ, most loving King, and to the Father, glory be,
one with the Spirit Paraclete,
from age to age for evermore. Amen.

PSALMODY

Antiphon 1

This is our heavenly King; he comes with power and might to save the nations, alleluia.

Psalm 104

Hymn to God the Creator

To be in Christ means being a completely new creature. Everything of the old is gone, now everything is made anew (2 Corinthians 5:17).

I

Bléss the Lórd, my sóul! *
Lord Gód, how gréat you áre, clóthed in májesty and glóry, *
wrápped in líght as in a róbe!

You strétch out the héavens like a tént. *
Above the ráins you buíld your dwélling.
You máke the clóuds your cháriot, *
and wálk on the wíngs of the wínd;
you máke the wínds your méssengers * and fláshing fire your sérvants.

You fóunded the éarth on its báse, *
to stand fírm from áge to áge.
You wrápped it with the ócean like a clóak: *
the wáters stood hígher than the móuntains.

At your thréat they tóok to flíght; *
at the vóice of your thúnder they fléd.
They róse over the móuntains and flowed dówn *
to the pláce which yóu had appóinted.

You set the limits they might not pass *
lest they return to cover the earth.

You make springs gush forth in the valleys: *
they flow in between the hills.

They give drink to all the beasts of the field; *
the wild-asses quench their thirst.

On their banks dwell the birds of heaven; *
from the branches they sing their song.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, *
and to the Holy Spirit:
as it was in the beginning, is now, *
and will be for ever. Amen.

Antiphon

This is our heavenly King; he comes with power and might to save the nations, alleluia.

Antiphon 2

Daughter of Jerusalem, rejoice and be glad; your King will come to you. Zion, do not fear; your Savior hastens on his way.

II

From your dwelling you water the hills; *
earth drinks its fill of your gift.

You make the grass grow for the cattle * and the plants to serve man's needs, that he may bring forth bread from the earth * and wine to cheer man's heart;

oil, to make him glad * and bread to strengthen man's heart.

The trees of the Lord drink their fill, *
the cedars he planted on Lebanon;
there the birds build their nests: *

on the tree-top the stork has her home.
The goats find a home on the mountains * and rabbits hide in the rocks.

You made the móon to márk the mónths; *
the sún knows the tíme for its sétting.
When you spréad the dárkness it is níght *
and all the béasts of the fórest creep fóρθ.
The young líons róar for their préy *
and ásk their fóod from Gód.

At the rísing of the sún they steal awáy *
and gó to rést in their déns.
Mán goes fóρθ to his wórks, *
to lábor till évening fálls.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, *
and to the Holy Spirit:
as it was in the beginning, is now, *
and will be for ever. Amen.

Antiphon

Daughter of Jerusalem, rejoice and be glad; your King will come to you. Zion, do not fear; your Savior hastens on his way.

Antiphon 3

Let us cleanse our hearts for the coming of our great King, that we may be ready to welcome him; he is coming and will not delay.

III

How mány are your wórks, O Lórd! †
In wísdóm you have máde them áll. *
The éarth is fúll of your ríches.

Thére is the séa, vast and wíde, † with its móving swárms past cóunting, * líving things gréat and smáll.
The shíps are móving thére *
and the mónsters you máde to pláy with.

Áll of thése look to yóu *
to gíve them their fóod in due séason.
You gíve it, they gáther it úp: *
you ópen your hánd, they have their fill.

You híde your fáce, they are dismáyed; † you táke back your spírit, they díe, * retúrning to the dúst from which they cáme.
You sénd forth your spírit, they are créated; *
and you renéw the fáce of the éarth.

May the glóry of the Lórd last forever! *
May the Lórd rejóice in his wórks!
He lóoks on the éarth and it trémbles; *
the móuntains send forth smóke at his tóuch.

I will síng to the Lórd all my lífe, *
make músic to my Gód while I líve.
May my thóughts be pléasing to hím. *
I find my jóy in the Lórd.
Let sínners vánish from the éarth †
and the wícked exíst no móre. *
Bléss the Lórd, my sóul.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, *
and to the Holy Spirit:
as it was in the beginning, is now, *
and will be for ever. Amen.

Antiphon

VERSE

Lift up your heads and see.

— Your redemption is now at hand.

READINGS

First reading

From the book of the prophet Isaiah

Against the pride of Jerusalem and Shebna

On that day you looked to the weapons in the House of the Forest; you saw that the breaches in the City of David were many; you collected the water of the lower pool. You numbered the houses of Jerusalem, tearing some down to strengthen the wall; you made a reservoir between the two walls for the water of the old pool. But you did not look to the city's Maker, nor did you consider him who built it long ago.

On that day the Lord,
 the God of hosts, called on you
 To weep and mourn,
 to shave your head and put on sackcloth.
 But look! you feast and celebrate,
 you slaughter oxen and butcher sheep,
 You eat meat and drink wine:
 "Eat and drink, for tomorrow we die!"
 This reaches the ears of the Lord of hosts—
 You shall not be pardoned this wickedness till you die, says the Lord, the God of hosts.

Thus says the Lord, the God of hosts:
 Up, go to that official,
 Shebna, master of the palace,
 Who has hewn for himself a sepulcher on a height and carved his tomb in the rock:
 "What are you doing here, and what people have you here, that here you have hewn for yourself a tomb?"
 The Lord shall hurl you down headlong, mortal man!
 He shall grip you firmly And roll you up and toss you like a ball into an open land
 To perish there, you and the chariots you glory in,
 you disgrace to your master's house!

I will thrust you from your office and pull you down from your station.
 On that day I will summon my servant

Eliakim, son of Hilkiyah;
I will clothe him with your robe,
and gird him with your sash,
and give over to him your authority.
He shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah.

I will place the key of the House of David on his shoulder;
when he opens, no one shall shut,
when he shuts, no one shall open.
I will fix him like a peg in a sure spot,
to be a place of honor for his family.

Responsory

Revelation 3:7, 8

This is the message of the holy and the true one, who holds the key of David:

— Behold I have put before you an open door which no one is able to close.

You have kept my word and have not denied my name.

— Behold I have put before you an open door which no one is able to close.

Second reading

From a commentary on Isaiah by Eusebius of Caesarea, bishop

(Cap. 40: PG 24, 366-367)

The voice in the wilderness

The voice of one crying in the wilderness: Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight the paths of our God. The prophecy makes clear that it is to be fulfilled, not in Jerusalem but in the wilderness: it is there that the glory of the Lord is to appear, and God's salvation is to be made known to all mankind.

It was in the wilderness that God's saving presence was proclaimed by John the Baptist, and there that God's salvation was seen. The words of this prophecy were fulfilled when Christ and his glory were made manifest to all: after his baptism the heavens opened, and the Holy Spirit in the form of a dove rested on him, and the Father's voice was heard, bearing witness to the Son: This is my beloved Son, listen to him.

The prophecy meant that God was to come to a deserted place, inaccessible from the beginning. None of the pagans had any knowledge of God, since his holy servants and prophets were kept from approaching them. The voice commands that a way be prepared for the Word of God: the rough and trackless ground is to be made level, so that our God may find a highway when he comes. Prepare the way of the Lord: the way is the preaching of the Gospel, the new message of consolation, ready to bring to all mankind the knowledge of God's saving power.

Climb on a high mountain, bearer of good news to Zion. Lift up your voice in strength, bearer of good news to Jerusalem. These words harmonize very well with the meaning of what has gone before. They refer opportunely to the evangelists and proclaim the coming of God to men, after speaking of the voice crying in the wilderness. Mention of the evangelists suitably follows the prophecy on John the Baptist.

What does Zion mean if not the city previously called Jerusalem? This is the mountain referred to in that passage from Scripture: Here is mount Zion, where you dwell. The Apostle says: You have come to mount Zion. Does not this refer to the company of the apostles, chosen from the former people of the circumcision?

This is the Zion, the Jerusalem, that received God's salvation. It stands aloft on the mountain of God, that is, it is raised high on the only-begotten Word of God. It is commanded to climb the high mountain and announce the word of salvation. Who is the bearer of the good news but the company of the evangelists? What does it mean to bear the good news but to preach to all nations, but first of all to the cities of Judah, the coming of Christ on earth?

Responsory

See Matthew 11:11, 9

The herald of the Lord approaches, of whom the Lord says:

— No one born of woman is greater than John the Baptist.

Truly this is a great prophet, and more than a prophet, of whom the Lord says:

— No one born of woman is greater than John the Baptist.

TE DEUM

You are God: we praise you;
You are the Lord: we acclaim you;
You are the eternal Father:
All creation worships you.

To you all angels, all the powers of heaven,
Cherubim and Seraphim, sing in endless praise:
Holy, holy, holy, Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.

The glorious company of apostles praise you.
The noble fellowship of prophets praise you.
The white-robed army of martyrs praise you.

Throughout the world the holy Church acclaim you:
Father, of majesty unbounded,
your true and only Son, worthy of all worship,
and the Holy Spirit, advocate and guide.

You, Christ, are the King of glory,
the eternal Son of the Father.

When you became man to set us free
you did not spurn the Virgin's womb.

You overcame the sting of death,
and opened the kingdom of heaven to all believers.

You are seated at God's right hand in glory.
We believe that you will come, and be our judge.

Come then, Lord, and help your people, bought with the price of your own blood,
and bring us with your saints to glory everlasting.

CONCLUDING PRAYER

Let us pray.

God of power and mercy,
open our hearts in welcome.
Remove the things that hinder us from receiving Christ with joy, so that we may share his wisdom and become one with him
when he comes in glory,
for he lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

— Amen.

Acclamation

Let us praise the Lord.

— And give him thanks.
